Bishop Baraga Association
Silent Auction
for the sustainability of the Baraga Educational Center and Museum

RULES of the Auction

   (The reserve must be met for the wood carving.
   If the reserve is not met by Sunday, September 26th at noon, the auction will continue until the reserve is met).

2. Some items have a minimum opening bid, bids below this amount are not valid.

3. Bids will be accepted by 3 means:
   1. Bid sheet - located at the Baraga Educational Center and Museum & their upcoming events.
      Name must be legible. Include phone number and bid amount.
   2. Facebook - Bid must be posted on the original Facebook post by the BBA about the auction.
   3. Phone - the Bishop Baraga Association at 906-227-9117. Provide your name, phone number, and bid.

   Bids will be updated on the Bid sheet and Facebook once received.

4. Auction items include:
   1. A Bald Eagle chainsaw carving created by Jenna Barosko.
      This item has a reserve that must be met for the item to be won.
      (Refer to Rule #1)
   2. 18 x 24 Framed pencil drawing by local artist, LoreAnn Parent.
   3. 9 x 12 framed pencil drawing by local artist, LoreAnn Parent &
      The Life and Legacy of Bishop Baraga and the Baraga House a new book by Sandy Jurkovich.
   4. 14 x 16 Framed photo of Lake Superior by Carole Pence

5. Winning bidders will be posted on the Bishop Baraga Association Facebook page, the BBA website (www.bishopbaraga.org), and at the Baraga Educational Center and Museum.

6. Successful bidders may pick up their items at the Baraga Educational Center and Museum
   (615 S. Fourth Street, Marquette, MI)

7. Winning bidders will be responsible to pick up or pay for the shipment of their item.

8. Credit card payments will be processed in US dollars. Cash or check payments in US dollars are also accepted.

9. All items are AS-IS. The Bishop Baraga Association assumes no liability for any claims, damages or losses resulting from possession or use of auction items.
Auction Items

Bald Eagle chainsaw carving
Designed & carved by Jenna Barosko from the Garden Peninsula.

This item has a reserve that must be met in order for the item to be won.

In the event the reserve is not met by 12pm Sunday September 26th, the auction for the carving will continue until the reserve is met.

14 x 16 Framed photo of Lake Superior
by Carole Pence
Minimum Bid $75.00

9 x 12 Framed pencil drawing
by local artist, LoreAnn Parent &
The Life and Legacy of Bishop Baraga and the Baraga House by Sandy Jurkovich
Minimum Bid $25.00

18 x 24 Framed pencil drawing
by local artist, LoreAnn Parent
Minimum Bid $75.00